ALL OF THE FAVORITES BEATEN IN YESTERDAY'S EXTRA RACES.

Bootlack Beaten by Ada, Bye-and-Bye by

Junita, Warfield by Don K., and Frank Short by Derby-Bad for the Knowing Ones. SARATOGA, Aug. 15 .- The air was cool this morning, but notwithstanding that fact the grounds of the Racing Association were filled with spectators, including many ladies, Such a full attendance was entirely unexpected. Monday being an extra day, and generally regarded as the poorest day of the week. The spectators were amply repaid for their presence to-day, as they witnessed a Waterloo for the favorites in each event. In the first race much reliance was placed on the Bonnie Scotland gelding Bootjack to win, but Ada took the prize from him after a sharp contest. Bye-and-bye was regarded by many as the winner of the second race, but Juanita won it handily. Charley Backus, who was regarded as out of place in this field of horses, finished a good sec-end, and paid for that place in the pools $70.20. Such a favorite was Warfield that it was difficult to sell pools on the others, but Dan K. upset the calculations of the knowing ones by winning easily. Again in the hurdle race the backers of the favorites got a set-back, Derby beating Frank Short after a desperate struggle. The track to-day was in first-class condition.

The first race was for a purse of $300, of which $50 to the second horse; entrance free; for two-year olds; those not having won a race of the value of $1,000 allowed 5 lbs.; maidens. winners of second money at Saratoga, allowed lbs.; other maidens allowed 10 lbs.; five furlongs. They ran down the chute to the half-mile pole, and Ada turned into the lower backstretch a good length before Bootjack. Zingara, Mabel, and Little Nell together, and Brenda inst. Running around the lower turn Bootjack closed the gap between himself and Ada, and the pair ran head and head into the homestretch, Zingara still third, a length behind, and the others beginning to string out. A close and exciting contest took place in the last furlong between Ada and Bootjack, the latter first catching the whip. When Halloway drew his whip on Ada she quickly responded, and placed a length between herself and Bootjack as she crossed the line a winner. Zingara third, Mabel fourth, Little Nell Illt, and Brenda last. Time, 1033;

HALF MURDERED AND ROBBED.

Benjamin Sweet is Knocked Insensible and then has his Thront Cut.

Benjamin Sweet of 95 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, has been visiting some friends in the village of Jamaica for several days past. He had resided in Jamaica all his life, nearly 70 years, until last spring, when he moved to Brooklyn. Two years ago the house in which he resided was burned. At that time he was living with his mother, who was 95 years old. The shock to her nervous system caused her death. Shortly after Mr. Sweet was to have been married to a young lady, but she died suddenly a few days before the time fixed for the marriage. Mr. Sweet was stopping during his visit at the house of Abram Smith, on the Black Stump road. On Sunday after dinner he walked to the woods that cover the range of hills on the Stump road. On Sunday after dinner he walked to the woods that cover the range of hills on the north side of the village. Between 4 and 5 o'clock he started to return to Mr. Smith's by way of the back lane. Neara large chestnut tree a colored man stepped out of a corn field, carrying a hickory or oak club, and, approaching Mr. Sweet, demanded his money. Mr. Sweet replied that he had no money, when the negro said, "Don't lie to me," and raising his club struck Sweet in the head, felling him to the ground insensible.

Mr. Sweet thinks it was near 6 o'clock in the evening when the assault was committed. He came to his senses at 4 o'clock vesterday morning. He was then lying in a clump of bushes a few feet away from the lane, his body covered with boughs. He was suffering from the coid and trembled violently. His hands were wet, and putting them to his throat he found that his neck had been cut in five places, apparently with a jackknife. Fortunately no artery was severed, although the wounds bled freely. Mr. Sweet succeeded in pushing off the boughs that covered him, and, holding on the fence, regalined his feet. His pockets had been turned inside out, and his pocketsook containing $50 and his knife were gone.

After regalpling his feet, Mr. Sweet went down his feet. His pockets had been turned inside out, and his pecketbook containing $50 and his knife were gone.

After regaining his feet, Mr. Sweet went down the lane to the house of Martha Watson, a colored woman, who gave him a drink of water and water to wash the blood from his hands and neck. He then went to Mr. Midas's store, where Mr. Smith is employed, and lay down on the stoop, where he was found at 5 o clock yesterday morning by Mr. Smith when he went to open the store. Mr. Smith took the injured man home in a wagon. Dr. Hendrickson was summoned to dress his wounds. His throat had been siashed in four places, and in another place the knife seemed to have been thrust into his neck, just grazing the windpipe. The wound is very deep, and may prove fatal.

Policeman Witkinson of Jamaica has been furnished with a minute description of Mr. Sweet'a assailant, and from this Witkinson believes that he knows the man. The person for whom he is looking is missing from his accustomed haunts.

THE TROTTERS IN SPRINGFIELD. A Track on which Maud S. ts Not Expected to Bent her Record.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 16 .- The great string of trotters, headed by St. Julien and Maud S., are here in force for to-morrow's opening races. The entries for the four following days number 115. The track is beautiful in its surroundings, but it is shaped like a pear. with its narrow end just beyond the starting stand. This makes a short and dangerous turn. It is perfectly safe to predict that no 2:11% record will be scored here. Those who bet that anywhere near 2:12 will be made will undoubtedly lose their money. Billy Bain sent Maud S. around a mile this morning with the intention of doing it in about 2:25. Maud broke, which is a very unusual thing for her, or the sharp turn at the send-off. She trotten the mile in 2:24. Mr. Hickok will not enter St. Julien in the match against time on Thursday with Maud S., but he will trott in the free-for-ail on that day with Darby and Hopeful. Trinket is being saved for the early September trot in Albany, where Maud S. is to appear. Maud will trot in a trial of speed on Thursday for a purse of $3,000 to beat her record of 2:11%. If she does it on this track the days of miracles will have come again. There are many rumors about Maud S. and St. Julien being sold for fabulous sums, which are all bosh. 2:11% record will be scored here. Those who

The ligraham lay by and searched until after sunrise, but found nothing except some tubs from the wreek. The lagraham returned to this port to report the disaster and repair a sight damage. It is supposed that the sunker vessel was from Boothbay, with a crew of three men.
